“AIA Creator Fund” to Provide a Total of HK$5 Million in Support of Youth-driven Social Innovation Projects

Hong Kong, 5 September 2023 — AIA Hong Kong has announced the launch of the “AIA Creator Fund”, an initiative that will provide a total of HK$5 million in funding as well as guidance and support for young people to carry out social innovation projects for the betterment of the community. Five awardees will each receive HK$1 million in funding to achieve their social innovation goals that co-create social value and a sustainable future for Hong Kong.

Recognising the creativity of young people, their passion for building a better future and their ability to create impact with out-of-the-box thinking, AIA Hong Kong is recruiting aspiring youth to submit their ideas for social innovation. In addition to funding, the five awardees will also receive mentorships and trainings conducted by seasoned experts to help them bring their concept to life and maximise their contributions to society.

Mr Alger Fung, Chief Executive Officer of AIA Hong Kong & Macau, said, “AIA Hong Kong has always been committed to helping young people pursue their dreams through diverse projects. Our interactions with today’s youth reveal their passion to build a better, more sustainable society and a strong desire to give back to the community. With this understanding, we are launching the AIA Creator Fund to provide young people with the financial resources and comprehensive support they need to kick-start projects that are designed to make a difference, create positive, lasting impacts on society, and help people live Healthier, Longer, Better Lives.”

A total of HK$5 million in funding plus guidance from professional mentors

AIA Hong Kong has appointed the social innovation organisation Agent of Change Foundation to coordinate the AIA Creator Fund project. In addition to receiving HK$1 million in funding, five awardees will also participate in a series of training workshops beginning in the first quarter of 2024. These workshops will arm the winners with knowledge on four major areas, including branding and marketing, budgeting and finance, capacity building, and social impact measurement. Also, experts with extensive experience in the industry will act as mentors to provide one-on-one coaching, offering comprehensive support to help the recipients develop their award-winning social
