AIA Vitality Curated Living Family Workshops Terms & Conditions

1. The Event titled “AIA Vitality Curated Living Family Workshops” (“Event”) is organised by AIA International Limited, a company incorporated under the laws of Bermuda with limited liability acting through its Hong Kong branch ("AIA"). The Event registration period commences at 3:00 pm on 30 November 2026 (Hong Kong time) until the quota of the Event is full ("Event Registration Period"), based on the time recorded by AIA's server. Places are limited and will be allocated on first-come, first-served basis.
2. Existing AIA Vitality Gold and Platinum members are eligible to participate in the Event if he/she has provided consent to receiving direct marketing for his/her AIA Vitality membership as of 25 November 2026 (“Eligible AIA Vitality Members”).
3. Employees and financial planners of AIA and its affiliated subsidiaries, and AIA Vitality members whose memberships are linked to group insurance policy, are not eligible to participate in the Event.
4. Each Eligible AIA Vitality Member is entitled to only one registration for the Event. The Event will be held at the AIRSIDE (2 Concorde Road, Kai Tak), on the following dates:
    - Family Coffee Appreciation Workshop: 12 and 13 December 2026
    - Mixing and Nutrition Workshop: 12 December 2026
    - Junior CrossFit Programme: 13 December 2026
5. To successfully register to participate in the Event, Eligible AIA Vitality members must satisfy all of the following requirements:
    (i) download the AIA+ mobile application and maintain a valid AIA+ account;
    (ii) log in to AIA+ within the Event Registration Period and select “[AIA Vitality member exclusive] AIA Vitality Curated Living Family Workshops” from the “Hot picks” section;
    (iii) submit the registration form on the Event webpage (“Valid Registration”).
    Each successful registrant (a “Successful Registrant”) may bring one guest.
6. Successful Registrants will receive a confirmation push notification through AIA+ on or before 4 December 2026 (“confirmation push notification”). Successful Registrants must present the confirmation push notification upon admission to the Event. AIA reserves the right to refuse admission if the confirmation push notification cannot be produced. AIA will not re-issue any lost, deleted or damaged confirmation push notifications.
7. All personal information provided by Eligible AIA Vitality Members on the Event webpage must be accurate and complete; otherwise, the registration shall be deemed invalid.
8. Once registration for the Event has been confirmed, no amendment, cancellation, or transfer to any other person is permitted.
9. AIRSIDE is the event operator and service provider for the workshops forming part of the Event, and AIA shall have no obligation in relation to the operation of such workshops. AIA shall not be liable for any matters arising from or in connection with the workshops. Any disputes arising from the workshops shall be resolved between the participants and the event operator. AIA shall not be responsible or liable for any loss, damage, injury, cost or expense arising from or in connection with the workshops or participation in the Event.

[AIA – INTERNAL]

10. By participating in the Event, Eligible AIA Vitality Members consent to AIA's Personal Information Collection Statement. For AIA's Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to the AIA corporate website https://www.aia.com.hk/en/privacy-statement.html. Each eligible AIA Vitality Member acknowledges and agrees that his/her name and contact information maintained in AIA's record may be used for the purposes of administering and facilitating participation in the Event.
11. (Only applicable to Successful Registrants of the Junior CrossFit Programme) Upon confirmation of participation in the Junior CrossFit Programme, each participant (or his/her parent or legal guardian, as applicable) acknowledges that s/he has read, understood and agreed to the following:
    - Participants must be aged between 6 and 12 on the date of the Junior CrossFit Programme. Underage participants must be accompanied throughout the Junior CrossFit Programme by a parent, legal guardian, or another adult who is an AIA Vitality member in order to participate in the Junior CrossFit Programme. AIA reserves the right to request proof of age for verification purposes and to refuse participation by any person who fails to satisfy the foregoing requirements. The parent or legal guardian of any underage participant represents and warrants that he or she has carefully assessed the participant's physical capability, fitness and health condition before enrolment and immediately prior to the participation in the Junior CrossFit Programme. In the event of any doubt regarding a participant's health, medical condition or suitability to participate in the Junior CrossFit Programme, the participant or the participant's parent or legal guardian shall seek professional medical advice from a registered medical practitioner prior to the participation in the Junior CrossFit Programme. The parent or legal guardian shall remain responsible at all times for the care, supervision, conduct and safety of the underage participant during the Junior CrossFit Programme.
    - Participating in the Junior CrossFit Programme may involve physical exertion and inherent risks. Participants knowingly, voluntarily and unconditionally assume and accept all risks and responsibility relating to the Junior CrossFit Programme, including but not limited to any risks arising from their own participation and, where applicable, the participation of any participant under their care or supervision. To the fullest extent permitted by law, participants agree to waive any and all claims against AIA and release and discharge AIA from any and all liabilities for, damage, loss, injury, expenses, costs, claims and demands arising from or relating to the Junior CrossFit Programme, including but not limited to the participation in the Junior CrossFit Programme and any information provided during, or in relation to, the Junior CrossFit Programme, except to the extent caused by the fraud, wilful misconduct or negligence of AIA or where liability cannot lawfully be excluded or restricted.
    - The Junior CrossFit Programme involves strenuous physical activities, including but not limited to running at speed and physical contact with other participants. Persons who suffer from heart disease, high blood pressure, serious joint disorders, epilepsy, respiratory illnesses, or any other medical condition that may render them unsuitable for strenuous exercise, must not participate in the Junior CrossFit Programme. Each participant or his/her parent or legal guardian who is an AIA Vitality member (as appropriate) represents and warrants that he or she does not suffer from any of the foregoing conditions and is medically and physically fit to participate in the Junior CrossFit Programme. AIA shall not be liable for, and expressly disclaims any responsibility in respect of, any injury, loss, damage, death, claim, or liability arising from a participant's failure to disclose any such medical condition or from the provision of incomplete, inaccurate, or misleading information regarding his or her health condition.

- Each participant or his/her parent or legal guardian who is an AIA Vitality member (as appropriate) confirms that he or she is physically fit and suitable to participate in the Junior CrossFit Programme, and voluntarily assumes all risks associated with participation in the Junior CrossFit Programme, including but not limited to personal injury, accidents, death, or loss of or damage to property. Participants shall comply with all instructions, directions, safety requirements and rules issued by AIA, AIRSIDE and/or event personnel during the Junior CrossFit Programme. AIA reserves the right to refuse, suspend or terminate a participant's participation in the Junior CrossFit Programme if AIA reasonably considers that the participant's conduct may endanger the participant, other participants or any other person, or otherwise disrupt the proper conduct of the Junior CrossFit Programme.
- Participants must wear appropriate clothing and footwear for the Junior CrossFit Programme (including, without limitation, attire suitable for strenuous physical activities) and shall ensure that any personal equipment or belongings brought to the Junior CrossFit Programme are safe and suitable for use. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, AIA shall not be liable for any inconvenience, injury, loss or damage suffered by any participant, or any loss or damage suffered by any third party, arising from a participant's failure to wear appropriate clothing or footwear, failure to comply with the foregoing requirements, or use of unsuitable personal equipment or belongings.
- If a participant feels unwell, suffers an injury, or requires assistance during the Junior CrossFit Programme, the participant or his/her parent or legal guardian who is an AIA Vitality member shall notify the event personnel for assistance immediately and follow any instructions given by the event personnel.
- Any and all information provided during, or in relation to, the Junior CrossFit Programme in any form is for general reference only, and should not be treated as medical advice, diagnosis, treatment, prevention of diseases and/or professional advice. Participants should consult a registered medical practitioner for any medical advice required.

12. AIA may record the Event for marketing, promotional or any other purposes it deems fit. Photographs, videos, audio-recordings and any other media of the participants taken during the Event may be used, displayed, reproduced, published and distributed and otherwise exploited through publications, newspapers, magazines, radio and television broadcasts, websites, mobile applications, emails, outdoor advertisements or any other types of medium or communication channels by AIA and/or third party(ies) as authorized by AIA and may be transferred by AIA to any other third party(ies) as it deems fit for the aforementioned purposes. By participating in the Event, each participant (and, in the case of a participant under the age of 18, his or her parent or legal guardian) consents to such collection, use, disclosure, publication and transfer without compensation, except where otherwise prohibited by applicable law.
13. AIA is not liable for any delay, loss of information, error in transmitting information, unrecognizable or damaged information that may be caused by any computer, internet network, telephone and technical problems or any other causes beyond the control of AIA, and the participants may not raise any objection.
14. If a participant, Successful Registrant, or the parent or legal guardian of a participant violates these terms and conditions or commits any illegal acts that result in any losses suffered by AIA or any third parties, the relevant participant (or the parent or legal guardian of such participant) or Successful Registrant shall be liable for all resulting losses, damages, costs, expenses and liabilities incurred by AIA and/or such third parties.
15. In the event that the Event must be cancelled or postponed due to adverse weather, safety concerns, force majeure, or any other reason, AIA may do so without prior notice and AIA's decision shall be final and binding.
16. If for any reason this Event cannot proceed as planned, whether due to computer virus, bugs, worms, trojan horses, denial of service attacks, tampering, unauthorized intervention, fraud, technical failures or any other causes beyond the control of AIA that corrupt or affect the administration, security, fairness, integrity, or proper conduct of this Event, AIA reserves the right, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the Event and/or refuse entry to any individual who tampers with the registration or participation process.
17. Unless stated otherwise, all dates and times stated in these terms and conditions refer to Hong Kong time zone.
18. All data related to this Event, including membership verification through a designated link, will be deemed valid based on AIA's system records.
19. AIA reserves the right to interpret these terms and conditions. For any dispute arising from this Event, AIA's decision shall be final and conclusive.
20. In the event of any discrepancies between the English and Chinese versions of these terms and conditions, the English version shall prevail.
21. These terms and conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Hong Kong.
22. By enrolling in this Event, participants confirm that they have read, understood and agreed to the above terms and conditions.

"Hong Kong" herein refers to "Hong Kong Special Administrative Region".

[AIA – INTERNAL]