About AIA Scholarships

Launched in 2020, the AIA Scholarships programme aims to support Hong Kong students with a proven track record of academic excellence and commitment to community service to pursue university education in Hong Kong.

100 scholarships will be awarded to outstanding local undergraduate students at 10 local universities every year to help them to optimise their university experience and encourage them to contribute to their local community.

Eligibility*

- Full-time 2026/27 Year 1 local undergraduate student at one of the 10 partner universities[^], across any academic discipline, pursuing their first undergraduate degree immediately following completion of their senior secondary school education.
- Minimum GPA of 3.2 on a 4.3 scale, 3 on a 4 scale or equivalent in the first semester of Year 1.
- Community service or charitable work experience.

^{*} AIA Foundation reserves the right at its discretion to vary any component of the AIA Scholarships programme prior to the commencement of each university academic year.

[#] Subject to satisfaction of scholarship renewal criteria.

[^] The AIA Scholarships programme is dedicated to supporting local students pursuing their undergraduate studies in one of the following universities (in alphabetical order) in Hong Kong: City University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Baptist University, Hong Kong Shue Yan University, Lingnan University, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, The Education University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Baptist University, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, and The University of Hong Kong.
