

Important Notes

- The AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund in the AIA Retirement Fund Scheme (the "Scheme") invests solely in an insurance policy issued by AIA Company Limited (the "Insurer"). Your investments in the AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund, if any, are therefore subject to the credit risks of the Insurer as both insurer and guarantor. Your entitlement to the capital guarantee under the AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund for each calendar year will be subject to your continued investment in the AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund until the end of each calendar year (please refer to the section entitled "Switching Between Funds" of the Principal Brochure for details of how a year is to be defined).
- The AIA Guaranteed Fund in the Scheme is a capital guaranteed fund. The guarantor is AIA Company Limited. Your investments in the AIA Guaranteed Fund, if any, are subject to the credit risk of the guarantor. Your entitlement to the capital guarantee under the AIA Guaranteed Fund for each year will be subject to your continued investment in the AIA Guaranteed Fund until the end of each year (please refer to the section entitled "Switching Between Funds" of the Principal Brochure for details of how a year is to be defined).
- You should consider your own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in your selection of fund choices, you are in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for you (including whether it is consistent with your investment objectives), you should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for you taking into account your circumstances.
- In the event that you do not make any fund choices, your contributions made and/or benefits transferred into the Scheme in respect of you will be invested in the default fund choice as agreed between your employer and the Trustee (and set out in the appropriate enrolment form(s)).
- The AIA Capital Stable Fund and AIA Allianz Capital Stable Fund do not guarantee the repayment of capital under all circumstances.

Introduction

AIA Retirement Fund Scheme (the “Scheme”) is a pooled retirement scheme set up by AIA Company Limited to meet the needs of companies of all sizes and to enable retirement assets of each participating plan to be “pooled” with other similar plans into various investment funds, thereby offering more competitive returns.

Employers can benefit from their participation in the Scheme in the following ways:

- ✧ Attract and retain employees by improving their benefits.
- ✧ Their contributions are eligible for profit tax relief upon approval by the relevant authorities.
- ✧ Offset long service payment / severance payment entitlements from the employer's portion of the accrued benefits.

Employees can benefit from their participation in the following ways:

- ✧ Lump-sum benefits received are tax-free.
- ✧ The retirement benefits provide financial security for the employees and their families.

Structure

The Scheme is set up by AIA Company Limited, a member of the AIA Group. The administration and trusteeship are undertaken by separate companies within the AIA Group and the investment of the assets of the Scheme is managed by separate professional investment managers.

Trustee and Administrator

AIA Company (Trustee) Limited ("AIA(T)" or "Trustee"), incorporated under the laws of Hong Kong on 10 July 1987, is the present trustee of the Scheme. The Trustee is responsible for the safekeeping of the assets. It also monitors the investment of the assets of the Scheme to ensure full compliance with the laws of Hong Kong.

AIA International Limited (Hong Kong Branch), incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability, acts as the administrator of the Scheme (the "Administrator"). Aided by a state-of-the-art administration system, its team of experienced personnel provides clients with retirement scheme administration and related services including maintenance of accounts and records, as well as communications with employers and scheme members.

Investment Managers

As the Trustee of the Scheme, AIA(T) has selected a range of fund choices to cater for different needs of the participants of the Scheme. The various fund choices are designed to provide different investment strategies ranging from steady growth to a more aggressive approach. The underlying investment of these fund choices is invested in different markets around the world, providing a diversified selection of investment choices and is managed by the following professional investment managers, well known for their expertise in retirement fund asset management.

- PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (Note: the investment management function of the AIA Manager's Choice Fund has been delegated to PineBridge Investments LLC)
- PineBridge Investments Hong Kong Limited
- PineBridge Investments Ireland Limited
- J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc.
- FIL Fund Management Limited
- Allianz Global Investors Asia Pacific Limited
- Schroder Investment Management (Hong Kong) Limited
- Franklin Advisers, Inc.

Applicable Legislation

Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance

According to the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance ("ORSO"), each employer who joins the Scheme will need to register with the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority and pay a registration fee on an annual basis, plus other fees / charges payable to the registrar / other regulatory authority. The Administrator will assist in the registration process by keeping proper accounts, records and annual financial statements of the Scheme for auditing and filing purposes with the relevant authorities as well as other daily operation. A key requirement of ORSO is the separation of the employees' benefits from the employer's accounts. By joining the Scheme, this requirement is automatically satisfied.

Long Service Payment / Severance Payment Offset

The Government enacted a provision under the Employment Ordinance in 1986, whereby employees who meet certain criteria are entitled to receive statutory long service payment / severance payment. To be in compliance with the above requirement, employers are entitled to apply for the benefits payable out of the employer's portion from the Scheme to offset the aforementioned payment.

Securities and Futures Commission Authorization

The offering documentation of the Scheme has been authorized by the Securities and Futures Commission, pursuant to s.105 of the Securities and Futures Ordinance. Securities and Futures Commission's authorization is not a recommendation or endorsement of the Scheme nor does it guarantee the commercial merits of the Scheme or its performance. It does not mean the Scheme is suitable for all investors nor is it an endorsement of its suitability for any particular investor or class of investors.

Scheme Structure and Governing Law

The Scheme is structured as a trust and shall be construed according to the laws of Hong Kong. It is also acknowledged that the parties involved have the right to bring legal action in a Hong Kong court of law.

Implications of FATCA

Under the United States ("US") Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") provisions of the US Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment ("HIRE") Act, 30% US withholding may be levied on certain US sourced income received, gross proceeds received on sales of the assets giving rise to that US sourced dividend or interest income, and any payments that are classified as "Foreign Passthru Payments" as defined below. FATCA imposes withholding on certain payments known as "Foreign Passthru Payments” from non-US financial institutions regardless of whether such payments have any connection to US Source Payments. The US Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) and the US Treasury Department have not issued implementing guidance regarding FATCA withholding on Foreign Passthru Payments.

FATCA applies to the Scheme because the Scheme is a Foreign Financial Institution (“FFI”) under FATCA. In general, there should be no withholding on payments to an FFI that complies with FATCA. Under US Treasury Regulations, FATCA compliance can be achieved by the Scheme being subject to the terms of an FFI agreement with the IRS under which the Scheme would, among other things, provide certain US tax reporting with respect to the holdings of and payments to certain members or external retirement scheme investors (as the case may be) in the Scheme, including members or external retirement scheme investors (as the case may be) identified as US persons.

The Scheme is subject to a Model 2 Intergovernmental Agreement between Hong Kong and the US (“Hong Kong IGA”) under which the Scheme is required to comply with FATCA, as implemented through the Hong Kong IGA and through applicable provisions of the US Treasury Regulations issued under FATCA, and report any FATCA-required information to the IRS. The Hong Kong IGA modifies certain FATCA requirements set forth in the US Treasury Regulations but generally requires similar information to be disclosed to the IRS. The Scheme intends to comply with FATCA and does not expect to be subject to a 30% withholding tax on payments received by the Scheme. In addition, the Scheme will not impose FATCA withholding on any payments made to members or external retirement scheme investors (as the case may be). The Scheme expects that such FATCA withholding will not be required until the date of publication in the US Federal Register of final regulations defining the term “Foreign Passthru Payment” for FATCA purposes. The Scheme has agreed to be subject to the terms of an FFI agreement and has registered with the IRS. However, there can be no assurance that the Scheme can remain FATCA compliant given the complexities of the FATCA requirements.

The Scheme may require a member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) to (i) provide the Scheme with personal information (e.g. his/her status as a US or non-US person and, if he/she is a US person, his/her US federal taxpayer identification number), and (ii) consent to the Scheme reporting such personal information, his/her other account information and any information relating to any other account held by such member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be), to the IRS where applicable. If a member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) fails to comply with requests from the Scheme relating to FATCA, the Scheme may be required to reflect such information of the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) when the Scheme reports information relating to aggregated account balance for, and the number of, non-consenting US accounts to the IRS.

Prospective members or external retirement scheme investors (as the case may be) should consult their own tax advisers regarding the possible implications of FATCA on their holding interests in the Scheme and the information that may be required to be provided and disclosed to the Scheme and the Trustee, and in certain circumstances ultimately to the IRS. The application of the FATCA withholding rules and the information that may be required to be reported and disclosed are subject to change.

Any discussion of US federal income tax considerations herein is not intended or written to be tax advice to any person and is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding any US federal tax penalties that may be imposed on such person. A prospective member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek advice from his/her own tax advisor based on his/her particular circumstances and with respect to his/her own FATCA status and the effects of the implementation of FATCA.

Benefits

Scheme Operation

The Scheme is designed to cater for a variety of retirement plans by allowing high flexibility of plan design with a variety of fund choices. The employer can set his/her own retirement plan design and select the appropriate fund choices.

Retirement plans are usually divided into two main categories: defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans.

Defined Contribution Plans

These plans are usually more popular due to their simplicity of design and operation, as well as their easy planning because the employer's contribution can be budgeted for. The employer and the employees (under the provision of the plan rules) contribute a fixed percentage of the employees' salary to the Scheme each month. These contributions are recorded separately and then invested according to the investment choices. Annual statements are issued to the employer and its employees summarizing the accumulated contributions and investment returns.

Example of Plan Design

The employer may adopt a set of rules tailored specifically to meet his/her particular requirements. An example of a defined contribution plan is shown below.

1 Contribution rate

Years of service	Employer	Employee
Less than 5 years	5.0%	5.0%
5-10 years	7.5%	5.0%
more than 10 years	10.0%	5.0%

2 Normal retirement age

When starting a new plan, the employer may set any age between 45 to 65 as the normal retirement age. At retirement, subject to the provisions of the rules governing the employer's plan, the retiring employee will generally be entitled to his/her accumulated benefits. The provisions which may impact on a retiring employee's entitlement to his/her accumulated benefits include provisions on forfeiture of benefits in a summary dismissal situation.

3 Death during employment

If an employee dies during the term of employment, his/her accumulated benefits will normally be paid to the named beneficiary. The employer may also provide life insurance protection in addition to the retirement plan benefits.

4 Permanent disability or ill health

If an employee leaves his/her services because he/she is permanently disabled or unfit to continue to work, the accumulated benefits will be paid in full.

5 Resignation or termination before retirement age

If an employee leaves his/her services before reaching the normal retirement age, he/she will, under normal circumstances, receive that part of the benefits attributable to his/her own contributions with investment returns plus a vested proportion of the accumulated benefits from the contributions made by the employer in respect of the employee in accordance with the following vesting scale:

Completed years of service	Vested proportion of accumulated benefits from employer's contributions
Less than 3 years	Nil
3 years	30%
4 years	40%
5 years	50%
6 years	60%
7 years	70%
8 years	80%
9 years	90%
10 years or more	100%

An exception to the above described entitlement on resignation would be cases where an employee resigns to avoid summary dismissal and the plan's documentation provides for forfeiture of benefits where an employee resigns to avoid summary dismissal.

Defined Benefit Plans

In a defined benefit plan, the employees' retirement benefits are determined by a formula which multiplies the employees' final salary and years of service.

For example: it can be a certain percentage (factor) of the final salary for each year of completed services.

These plans are called defined benefit plans because the benefit rather than the contribution level is defined.

The employer contributions required to provide the defined benefit need to be actuarially determined and reviewed at least every three years and are subject to changes. The Administrator possesses the expertise to provide this service.

Employees' contributions can also be made to a defined benefit plan and withdrawal benefits are usually based on these contributions and interest plus either an additional vested benefit based on these contributions or a discounted proportion of the retirement benefits (based on an actuarially determined formula).

The responsibility of ensuring sufficient funds for the benefits of the employees rests with the employer.

Flexibility

Establishment of Retirement Plan

An employer joins the Scheme by executing a deed of participation for the Scheme which is governed by the deed of establishment. Under the deed of establishment, the rules governing the plan benefits due to the participating members are set out and must be adopted by the employer.

Variation to Rules

The Scheme is extremely flexible, allowing the employer to change the plan rules by executing a deed of variation, subject to certain limitations. This gives the employer the flexibility to adopt plan rules to suit the employer's needs.

Past Service Contribution (Optional)

In addition to normal contributions, an employer may opt to make additional contributions on behalf of an employee in respect of his/her previous service in the company, during which no pension benefits are applicable i.e. past service contribution.

Transferring Existing Plan

An employer's existing retirement plan can be transferred to the Scheme. The value of assets to be transferred from the existing retirement plan to the Scheme will be agreed with the manager of the existing plan, and then transferred to the Scheme by executing a deed of participation.

Deed of Establishment Amendments

The Trustee will amend the deed of establishment to comply with any new legislation that may be introduced, or to improve the management of the Scheme. Subject to the requirements under the Code on Pooled Retirement Funds issued by the Securities and Futures Commission, changes to the deed of establishment would require prior approval of the Securities and Futures Commission and the Securities and Futures Commission will determine whether investors should be notified and the period of notice (if any) that should be applied before any such changes are to take effect. Normally, a three-month notice period will be given.

Fund Choices and Selection

Upon joining the Scheme, the employer can invest its own and the employees' contributions into a combination of up to 17 fund choices, they are:

- ✧ AIA Guaranteed Fund
- ✧ AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund
- ✧ AIA Global Bond Fund
- ✧ AIA Capital Stable Fund
- ✧ AIA Allianz Capital Stable Fund
- ✧ AIA Balanced Fund
- ✧ AIA Allianz Stable Growth Fund
- ✧ AIA Growth Fund
- ✧ AIA Allianz Growth Fund
- ✧ AIA Manager's Choice Fund
- ✧ AIA American Equity Fund
- ✧ AIA European Equity Fund
- ✧ AIA Hong Kong Equity Fund
- ✧ AIA Greater China Equity Fund
- ✧ AIA Asia ex Japan Equity Fund
- ✧ AIA Hong Kong and China Fund
- ✧ AIA World Fund

Employees' preference may be taken into account when setting both the fund choices and combination of fund choices. This selection process would work as follows:

- (i) The employer can choose a combination of up to 17 fund choices. For example: if the employer chooses 5 out of the 17 fund choices
 - 1 AIA American Equity Fund
 - 2 AIA Growth Fund
 - 3 AIA Balanced Fund
 - 4 AIA Capital Stable Fund
 - 5 AIA Guaranteed Fund
- (ii) The employer then sets the investment arrangement options for its plan, within the selected fund choices.

Once the options are set, the employer can then leave it to the employees to choose the options they prefer. The employees' choices can be a separate option to that of the employer's. Alternatively, the employer may elect to give its employees the right to decide on the investment arrangement in relation to both the employer's and employee's contributions.

A list of investment arrangement options has been completed based on different long-term objectives to assist employers and employees in determining the appropriate options.

Switching Between Funds

(i) Switching by Members (not Deferred Members)

Future contributions invested in funds

Each member can reallocate their future contributions among the fund choices. There is no limit on the number of requests for reallocation of any future contributions among the fund choices, but the provisions of paragraph (4) below would apply.

Existing investments in funds

Each member can switch all or part of their existing investments free of charge from one fund choice to another within the Scheme, subject to the following:

- (1) Subject to paragraph (4) below, there is no limit on the number of switches into any of the fund choices.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (4) below, there is no limit on the number of switches out of any fund choices (other than the AIA Guaranteed Fund as explained in paragraph (3) below).
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4) below, in each relevant plan year as notified by the Trustee to the relevant Employer from time to time (each such plan year called "Employer Plan Year"), only one switch out of the AIA Guaranteed Fund is permitted. With every switching request, the previous and the requested revised allocation percentage for existing balance in the AIA Guaranteed Fund will be compared. If the revised allocation percentage is smaller than the previous allocation percentage, it will be deemed to be a switch-out from the AIA Guaranteed Fund.
- (4) All switches or reallocations via the Interactive Website or Interactive Voice Response System are free of charge, but this is subject to an access fee for each Employer Plan Year (which is currently waived). Only one free-of-charge switch or reallocation request either into or out (as defined in paragraph (3) above) of any fund choices using a method of instruction other than via the Interactive Website or Interactive Voice Response System will be permitted in each Employer Plan Year (unless otherwise agreed by the Trustee).

An administration fee of HK$100 per fund choice switching request per member, subject to a minimum of HK$2,000 per employer plan for each submission, will be charged for additional fund choice switching requests (except for the annual free switch) submitted via the employer using a method of instruction other than the Interactive Website or Interactive Voice Response System in an Employer Plan Year.

The participating fund choices chosen for the plan may also be changed once a year at the plan review date and may be subject to a bid / offer margin at both the scheme level and the underlying level on the transfer of assets. No switching will be permitted under a one-year investment period within each option.

(ii) Switching by Deferred Members

Instead of receiving benefits from the Scheme at such time as prescribed under the governing documentation of the Scheme (generally, on termination of employment), an employee who participates in the Scheme may also elect to have his/her benefits retained in the Scheme on such terms and conditions and in such manner as the Trustee may from time to time determine. Details of such participation will be given upon request.

Without prejudice to the generality above, a deferred member may reallocate his/her benefits retained in the Scheme (the “retained benefits”) among the fund choices. There is no limit on the number of requests for reallocation of any such retained benefits among the fund choices, subject to the following conditions:

- (1) Subject to paragraph (4) below, there is no limit on the number of switches into any of the fund choices.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (4) below, there is no limit on the number of switches out of any fund choice (other than the AIA Guaranteed Fund as explained in paragraph (3) below).
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4) below, in each plan year (which is a calendar year, each such year called “Deferred Member Plan Year”), only one switch out of the AIA Guaranteed Fund is permitted. With every switching request, the previous and the requested revised allocation percentage for existing balance in the AIA Guaranteed Fund will be compared. If the revised allocation percentage is smaller than the previous allocation percentage, it will be deemed to be a switch out from the AIA Guaranteed Fund.
- (4) All switches or reallocations via the Interactive Website or Interactive Voice Response System are free of charge, but this is subject to an access fee for each Deferred Member Plan Year (which currently is waived). Only one free-of-charge switch or reallocation request either into or out (as defined in paragraph (3) above) of any fund choices using a method of instruction other than via the Interactive Website or Interactive Voice Response System will be permitted in each Deferred Member Plan Year (unless agreed by the Trustee) (see paragraph below for details).

An administration fee of HK$100 per fund choice switching request will be charged for additional fund choice switching requests submitted via means other than the Interactive Website or Interactive Voice Response System in a Deferred Member Plan Year.

(iii) Important Note (applicable to Members and Deferred Members)

Profiles of each of these fund choices are attached at the Fund Fact Sheets. Information contained in the Fund Fact Sheets is for reference only.

Any figure or graph shown in the Fund Fact Sheets is measured net of trustee and investment management fees and for illustration purposes only, and should not be viewed as an indication of future investment performance. The investment returns may go up as well as down.

The Trustee selects the fund choices available for the employers and members participating in the Scheme and may delete from or add to the list of fund choices from time to time. According to the Code on Pooled Retirement Funds issued by the Securities and Futures Commission, notice period of at least three months as agreed with the Securities and Futures Commission will be given to all participants if a fund choice is to be removed as a fund choice from the Scheme.

Investment Restrictions

An investment portfolio is expected to comply with the general provisions of Chapter 7 of the Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds, where applicable.

In addition, no money of an investment portfolio may be invested in the securities of, or lent to, as applicable, the management company, the guarantor, the Trustee, or any of their respective connected persons except where any of these parties is a substantial financial institution or an insurance company. For these purposes securities does not include units or shares in unit trusts or mutual fund corporations, either authorized under s.104 of Securities and Futures Ordinance or recognized jurisdiction schemes pursuant to s.1.2 of the SFC Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds.

The above requirements should be applied, individually, to all investment portfolios of a pooled retirement fund except for guaranteed funds.

Rebates

An investment manager and its connected persons will not receive cash or other rebates from brokers or dealers in respect of directing transactions in the investment of the pooled retirement fund save that goods and services may be retained which are of demonstrable benefit to the investors and the transaction execution is consistent with best execution standards and brokerage rates are not in excess of customary institutional full-service brokerage rates.

Please note that "goods and services" referred to in the paragraph immediately above may include, among other things: research and advisory services; economic and political analysis; portfolio analysis, including valuation and performance measurement; market analysis, data and quotation services; computer hardware and software incidental to the above goods and services; clearing and custodian services and investment-related publications. Such goods and services may not include travel, accommodation, entertainment, general administrative goods or services, general office equipment or premises, membership fees, employee salaries, or direct money payments.

Professional Services

Administration Services

The Administrator renders the following services:

- * Assistance in plan design and advice on subsequent improvements and changes
- * Preparation of contract documents for the plan
- * Obtaining registration from relevant authorities
- * Assistance in printing of explanatory leaflets and employee communications
- * Assistance in organizing enrollment meetings
- * General administration and record keeping
- * Ensuring ongoing compliance with legislation
- * Calculation and payment of benefits
- * Preparation of annual statements for both employer and employees

In order to safeguard the interests of both the employer and the employees when investing in the Scheme, separate accounts for each party will be maintained.

Benefits will normally be paid in the currency of the fund choice(s) selected, but may be paid in another currency upon request.

A copy of the deed of establishment, rules and annual audited accounts for each fund of the Scheme are available for inspection at the administration office of the Administrator.

Administration Charges

Subject to any written agreement between the Trustee and an employer from time to time, the administration charges of a defined contribution plan are as those as shown below. If employers are interested in a defined benefit plan, please contact our hotline at 2100 1888 for further details.

- 1 Annual plan charge - HK$1,000
- 2 Annual membership charge - HK$12 per member for the first 500 members and HK$10 per member on the excess over 500
- 3 Contribution charge - subject to the agreement between the Trustee and the employer, a percentage not exceeding 5% p.a. of the annual contributions

ORSO Registration Fees

- 1 Each employer who joins the Scheme will need to register with the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority and pay a registration fee on an annual basis, plus any other fees / charges payable to the registrar / other regulatory authority.
- 2 Each employer has to pay an auditor fee and solicitor fee of not exceeding HK$1,000 to the Administrator on an annual basis.

The Trustee has absolute discretion over whether or not to accept an employer into the Scheme. In case of unusual or difficult procedures in meeting the requirements of the employer, a different charging scale may be applied with the agreement of the employer. Any changes to the charges are subject to a minimum of three months (except otherwise stated) notice. Please also see the attached profiles of fees in relation to the fund choices under the Scheme.

Plan Termination Charge

An employer may choose to terminate its participation in the Scheme by giving 31-day notice in writing to the Trustee. As detailed below, an early termination charge is applicable if the employer withdraws from the Scheme in the first 5 years:

	(Percentage of plan asset value)
1st	5%
2nd	4%
3rd	3%
4th	2%
5th	1%
6th or onwards	0%

Additional Expenses

Additional costs and expenses arising as a result of specific request made by an employer and / or member, which are incurred by the Trustee and/or the Administrator as a result of such specific request will be borne by that particular employer and / or member. If such employer and / or member fails to separately pay for such costs and expenses, the Trustee may redeem such necessary credited units of such employer and / or member with their respective consents (as applicable), to settle such costs and expenses so incurred by the Trustee and/or the Administrator.

AIA Guaranteed Fund

Investment manager at the fund level:

PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (the "Investment Manager")

The Fund

The investment objective of AIA Guaranteed Fund (the "Fund") is to develop a secured source of high recurring income over the long run and the guarantee of capital by investing in prudent, balanced fixed interest instruments and equities with low to medium inherent risk. The Fund is denominated in Hong Kong dollars. The Fund, at the retirement fund level, does not invest in any financial derivative instruments or use any leveraging investment other than for hedging purposes. Investments are structurally limited in line with the following asset-class exposure:

Asset Class	Range
Bonds and Other Fixed Income Instruments	87% - 98%
Preferred / Common Stocks	0% - 7%
Cash	2% - 6%

Note: The above asset allocation is for reference only and is subject to changes at the Investment Manager's discretion.

A member's or external retirement scheme investor's entitlement to the capital guarantee under the Fund for each year will be subject to the member's or external retirement scheme investor's continued investment in the Fund until the end of each year (for the purpose of this Fund, a year is defined as the first 12 months of participation and each 12 months' period after that).

The Fund provides for an annual capital guarantee at the end of each relevant year on any amount invested in the Fund (after any deduction for payment of the trustee fee of 1% p.a. (deducted monthly)).

If a member or an external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) switches out his/her investment from the Fund before the end of the relevant year for any reason, the guarantee of capital mentioned above will not apply and the member or the external retirement scheme investor would be entitled to his/her contribution and the monthly yield that has been declared and credited to his/her account on or before the date of switching. In addition, a member or an external retirement scheme investor who switches out his/her investment from the Fund before the end of the relevant year may not receive the whole amount of his/her contribution if the monthly yield declared is negative.

AIA Company Limited ("AIA") as the guarantor of the Fund agrees and undertakes to satisfy the capital guarantee under the Fund.

A member's or external retirement scheme investor's investments in the Fund, if any, are subject to the credit risk (including default and downgrade risks) of AIA.

In relation to the capital guarantee, an investment reserve has been set up for stabilization purpose and is used for the benefit of the Fund's participants. The reserve amount is deducted from the balance of the Fund before allocation of yield proportionately to each participating employer's or external retirement scheme investor's plan. Such reserve is owned by the Fund. It does not form part of the assets of the Investment Manager or the Trustee and cannot be repatriated to either party. AIA, at its sole discretion has the right to allocate investment income of the Fund in excess of that required to be set aside into the above mentioned reserve to meet the guaranteed benefits under the Fund.

The Trustee, in consultation with AIA, will credit a monthly investment return to the Fund. This monthly investment return is determined at the sole discretion of the Trustee in the following manner:

- I. The Trustee determines the investment income of the Fund of the month. Investment income is ascertained according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.
- II. The Trustee then reduces this investment income by a provision for investment reserve and the fees and charges of the Fund.
- III. The net income, after deduction of the amounts in (II) above, is then used to derive the monthly yield to be declared by the Trustee on the Fund and credited to the account of the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) at the end of each calendar month.

Valuation of the Fund will be made after the close of business on the last day of each calendar month.

Note: AIA has the right at its sole discretion to change/reduce the capital guarantee by giving a six-month advance notice (or any shorter period as agreed with the Securities and Futures Commission).

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks – The guarantee feature of the Fund will not be affected by political, economic and social risks. However, the guarantor and the value of the Fund's assets may be affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Counterparty/credit risk - The Fund invests in deposits, equities and bonds, and may be exposed to default and settlement risks;
- iii. Guarantor risk - The value of the Fund is subject to the risk of the guarantor not being able to meet the guarantee obligations; and
- iv. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

You may contact the Investment Manager for its latest information. Please refer to the section “Offices of Participants” of the Principal Brochure for the contact information.

Fees

The Trustee receives a fee of 1% per annum (inclusive of the Investment Manager’s fee) of the total net asset value of the Fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund

Insurer of Capital Guaranteed Insurance Policy ("CG Policy"): AIA Company Limited ("AIA")

The Fund

AIA Capital Guaranteed Fund (the "Fund"), established in 1999, invests in the CG Policy issued by AIA. AIA is the guarantor of the Fund and the CG Policy.

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve a stable, consistent, predictable rate of return and the guarantee of capital, by investing primarily in fixed income instruments or in any product which, in the opinion of AIA, provides economically equivalent returns, and investments in equity will not exceed 15% of total assets. The Fund is denominated in Hong Kong dollars. As mentioned above, the Fund invests in the CG Policy; the CG Policy does not invest in any financial derivative instruments or use any leveraging investment other than for hedging purposes.

The Trustee determines the investment income of the Fund each month. Investment income is ascertained according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

The investment income is then reduced by the fees and charges of the Fund and by a provision for investment reserve. The net income after the deduction is then used to derive the monthly yield to be declared by the Trustee.

The Trustee will at the end of each calendar year determine the investment yield of the Fund. AIA guarantees the investment yield of the Fund declared for each calendar year not to be negative. The investment yield will be determined by, firstly, considering the annual declared interest rate payable under the CG Policy and, secondly, deduction of any trustee fee and all other fees and charges¹. Such annual declared interest rate will be determined by AIA at its sole discretion at the end of each calendar year. AIA guarantees that the annual declared interest rate will not be negative under the CG Policy. AIA, at its sole discretion, has the right to retain investment income of the Fund in excess of that required to be set aside to meet the guaranteed benefits under the Fund. Such retained investment income will be transferred to the shareholders' funds of AIA.

An interim interest rate will be declared by the Trustee each month and credited to the members or external retirement scheme investors (as the case may be) on a daily basis.

A member's or external retirement scheme investor's entitlement to any capital guarantee under the Fund for each year will be subject to the member's or external retirement scheme investor's continued investment in the Fund until the end of each calendar year. If a member or an external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) switches out his/her investment from the Fund before the end of the relevant calendar year for any reason, the guarantee of capital mentioned above will not apply and the member or the external retirement scheme investor would be entitled to his/her contribution and the investment yield that has been declared and credited to his/her account until the date of switching. As such, the guarantee of having an investment yield for the relevant calendar year not to be negative would not be applicable to such member or external retirement scheme investor. In addition, a member or an external retirement scheme investor who switches out his/her investment from the Fund before the end of the relevant year may not receive the whole amount of his/her contribution if the interim interest rate declared is negative.

The CG Policy will invest primarily in (but not limited to) Hong Kong fixed income securities or in any product which, in the opinion of AIA, provides economically equivalent returns.

Valuation of the Fund will be made after the close of business on the last day of each calendar month.

Note:

1. AIA reserves the right under the CG Policy to discontinue the guarantee or revise the guarantee upon the giving of 6 months notice (or such other period as agreed with the Securities and Futures Commission).
2. Upon any partial or total withdrawal request made by a participating employer or external retirement scheme investor* which is due to a retirement plan termination made under the Scheme, the Trustee shall pay (at the participating employer's or external retirement scheme investor's option):
 - a) the withdrawal amount payable to the participating employer or external retirement scheme investor (the "Withdrawal Amount") by 20 quarterly installments each being an amount equal to one-twentieth of the Withdrawal Amount with the amount of investment earnings credited thereon after the effective date of the plan termination being paid at the last installment; or
 - b) the Withdrawal Amount less an amount, which is to be determined by the Trustee at its sole discretion to reflect the difference between the participating employer's or external retirement scheme investor's accumulation in the participating employer's or external retirement scheme investor's account (as the case may be) and the market value of the underlying assets; provided always that if the Withdrawal Amount exceeds HK$25 million, the Trustee has the right to pay the Withdrawal Amount by installments over a period not exceeding five years with any investment earnings credited thereon after the effective date being paid at the last installment.

3. Below is an illustration to demonstrate the guarantee mechanism of the Fund:

Date	Initial balance (HK$)	Monthly contribution (HK$)	Monthly interim interest rate [#]	Member entitlement (HK$)
1/1/2000	1,000.00			1,000.00

	Guaranteed total:	1,600.00	Accumulated member entitlement (with guaranteed annual investment yield of 0%) as at 12/31/2000	1,600.00

[#] For the purpose of the example above, the monthly interim interest rate has already taken into account any fees and charges.

¹ All other fees and charges refer to all costs, charges, taxes and expenses related to registration, auditing, custodial services and investments. These shall be charged against the Fund.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks – The guarantee feature of the Fund will not be affected by political, economic and social risks. However, the insurer and the value of the Fund's assets may be affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Counterparty/credit risk - The Fund invests in deposits, equities and bonds, and may be exposed to default and settlement risks;
- iii. Insurer risk - The value of the Fund is subject to the risk of the insurer not being able to meet the guarantee obligations; and
- iv. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

Fees

The Trustee can receive a fee not exceeding 1% per annum of the total net asset value of the Fund. The trustee fee is currently waived for the Fund but its underlying investment is being charged a fee of 1% per annum of the total net asset value of the underlying investment.

Upon the consent of AIA, the Trustee may vary the trustee fee provided that any such variation shall be notified to the employer or external retirement scheme investor at least three months (or such other period as agreed with the Securities and Futures Commission) in advance.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and

Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA Global Bond Fund

Investment manager at the fund level and the underlying fund level:

Franklin Advisers, Inc. (the “Investment Manager”)

The Fund

AIA Global Bond Fund (the “Fund”), established in 2016, invests solely in the Franklin Templeton Investment Funds – Templeton Global Total Return Fund (the “Underlying Fund”). The Fund is denominated in United States dollars. The investment objective of the Underlying Fund is to maximize total investment return by achieving an increase in the value of its investments, earning income and realizing currency gains over the medium to long term.

The Underlying Fund invests principally in debt securities of any quality (including investment grade and non-investment grade securities) issued by governments, government-related or corporate entities worldwide, and may also invest in mortgage- and asset-backed securities, debt obligations issued by supranational entities organized or supported by several national governments, such as the European Investment Bank, securities in default (limited to 10% of assets), and convertible bonds. The Underlying Fund can invest less than 30% of its net assets in Mainland China through the Bond Connect or directly (also referred to as China Interbank Bond Market “CIBM” direct). The Underlying Fund may invest extensively in financial derivative instruments for hedging, efficient portfolio management and/or investment purposes to manage the risks of the portfolio and gain exposure to certain asset classes, currencies, or position on the yield curve (long maturities vs. short maturities), or to exchange fixed rate obligations with floating rate obligations. The financial derivative instruments in which the Underlying Fund may invest include swaps (such as credit default swaps or fixed income related total return swaps), futures contracts, and foreign currency forward contracts, including cross currency forwards where one currency is hedged into another through an intermediate third currency or where one currency is used as a proxy for hedging another currency (e.g. using the Canadian dollar as a proxy for the U.S. dollar). The Underlying Fund’s net derivative exposure may be more than 50% but up to 100% of the Underlying Fund’s net asset value.

The Underlying Fund may invest in debt instruments with loss-absorption features (“LAP”) e.g. contingent convertible securities, senior non-preferred debts, etc. These instruments may be subject to contingent write-down or contingent conversion to ordinary shares on the occurrence of trigger event(s). The Fund’s expected total maximum investments in LAP is 30% of its net assets.

Details of the investments of the Underlying Fund are set out in the offering documents of the Underlying Fund which are available upon request to the Trustee.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund's net asset value together with the Fund's unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. With effect from 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. "Business Day" means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a "Business Day" unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

The Fund is exposed to the following risks:

- i. Economic, political and regulatory risks: Such risks are prevalent in any market, especially emerging markets. For example, legal and regulatory risks from investments in countries with unclear and changing laws or the lack of established or effective avenues for legal redress, the Underlying Fund may be subject to more restrictive regulatory regimes potentially preventing the Underlying Fund from making the fullest possible use of the investment limits. The Underlying Fund may also be adversely affected by changes in market and/or economic and political conditions, and in legal, regulatory and tax requirements;
- ii. Eurozone risk: The Underlying Fund may invest in the Eurozone. Mounting sovereign debt burdens (e.g. any sovereigns within the Eurozone, which default on their debts, may be forced to restructure their debts and faced difficulties in obtaining credit or refinancing) and slowing economic growth among European countries, combined with uncertainties in European financial markets, including feared or actual failures in the banking system and the possible break-up of the Eurozone and Euro currency, may adversely affect interest rates and the prices of securities across Europe and potentially other markets as well. These events may increase volatility, liquidity and currency risks associated with investments in Europe. The aforesaid economic and financial difficulties in Europe may spread across Europe and as a result, a single or several European countries may exit the Eurozone or a sovereign within the Eurozone may default on its debts. In any event of the break-up of the Eurozone or Euro currency, the Underlying Fund may be exposed to additional operational or performance risks. While the European governments, the European Central Bank, and other authorities are taking measures (e.g. undertaking

- economic reforms and imposing austerity measures on citizens) to address the current fiscal conditions, these measures may not have the desired effect and therefore the future stability and growth of Europe is uncertain. The performance and value of the Underlying Fund may be adversely affected should there be any adverse credit events (e.g. downgrade of the sovereign credit rating or default or bankruptcy of any Eurozone countries);
- iii. Interest rate securities risk: Interest rates changes tend to be driven by prevailing economic, political and regulatory conditions as well as issuer-specific factors, impacting longer term securities more than short-term securities. While changes in interest rates may affect the Underlying Fund's interest income, such changes may positively or negatively affect the net asset value of the Underlying Fund's shares on a daily basis. A fixed income security's value will generally increase in value when interest rates fall and decrease in value when interest rates rise. Movements in interest rates may adversely affect a fixed income security's value and the Underlying Fund's net asset value. Conditions in the banking sector may also adversely affect interest rates and the prices of fixed income securities;
 - iv. Credit risk and sovereign debt risk: The Underlying Fund may invest in debt obligations issued by governments and corporate. Investment in sovereign debts issued or guaranteed by governments as well as in corporate issues involves a high degree of risk, as default can occur if the government or corporate entity is not able or willing to repay the principal and/or interest when due. Fixed income securities are also exposed to the risk of being downgraded, which can adversely affect and/or result in a substantial loss to the Underlying Fund. Additional risks for sovereign debt include the unilateral rescheduling of sovereign debt by the issuer and the limited legal resources available against a sovereign issuer, which may adversely affect the Underlying Fund;
 - v. Low-rated, unrated or non-investment grade securities risk: The Underlying Fund may invest in lower rated, unrated or non-investment grade securities where the risk of failure to pay interest and/or principal is greater vs. higher rated securities, which may result in a substantial loss to the Underlying Fund;
 - vi. Foreign currency risk: The Underlying Fund will typically invest to a significant degree in securities that are denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the Underlying Fund, exposing its investments to changes in foreign exchange rates and the possibility of exchange control regulations. The Underlying Fund may seek to hedge currency exposure, which can limit the potential for currency gains, or take a currency position for investments purposes, which can result in substantial loss to the Underlying Fund. To the extent that the Underlying Fund seeks to hedge or protect against currency exchange risk, there is no guarantee that hedging or protection will be achieved, and the value of the Underlying Fund may be adversely affected;

- vii. Liquidity risk: The Underlying Fund may not be able to easily sell securities due to adverse market conditions or reduced value or creditworthiness of issuers in which it invests. Requests for redemption of shares, which are not listed, may be deferred or suspended. Reduced liquidity due to these factors may have an adverse impact on the net asset value of the Underlying Fund and on the ability of the Underlying Fund to meet redemption requests in a timely manner;
- viii. Mortgage dollar roll risk: The Underlying Fund may sell mortgage-backed securities for delivery in the current month and simultaneously contract to repurchase similar securities on a future date. The Underlying Fund may suffer a substantial loss if the counterparty defaults;
- ix. Derivative risk: The Underlying Fund may invest in financial derivatives or structured products such as credit-linked securities, swaps (including credit default swaps and fixed income related total return swaps), futures, forwards, and options for hedging or investment purposes, or for efficient portfolio management (to reduce risk or cost). Derivative instruments involve cost, may be volatile, and may involve a leverage effect. A small investment in derivatives may give rise to material market exposure and result in higher risk than the initial investment, which may cause substantial loss to the Underlying Fund. The risk of loss to the Underlying Fund for a swap transaction on a net basis may equal the entire amount that the Underlying Fund is entitled to receive if the counterparty that owes that amount defaults or is otherwise unwilling or unable to make the payment that is owed to the Underlying Fund. The Underlying Fund does set aside cash or assets to meet future obligations related to derivatives. Performance and value of derivative instrument depend, at least in part, on the performance or value of the underlying asset. Risks include delivery failure, default by other party or the inability to close out a position because the trading market becomes illiquid. In addition, with respect to the use of derivatives for hedging, efficient portfolio management or investment purposes, there can be no assurances that the use of derivatives for these intended purposes will be achieved;
- x. Counterparty risk: When over-the-counter (“OTC”) or other bilateral contracts are entered into (such as OTC derivatives, repurchase agreements, security lending etc.), the Underlying Fund may find itself exposed to risks arising from the solvency of its counterparties and from their ability to respect the condition of these contracts and the Underlying Fund/investors may be adversely impacted.
- xi. Volatility risk: Financial derivative instruments tend to be more volatile and less liquid than underlying investments to which they relate, which can have an adverse impact on the Underlying Fund; and
- xii. Risks associated with investments in debt instruments with loss-absorption features: Debt instruments with loss-absorption features are subject to greater risks when compared to traditional debt instruments as such instruments are typically subject to the risk of being written down or converted to ordinary shares upon the occurrence of a pre-defined trigger events (e.g. when the issue is near or at the point of non-viability or when the issuer's capital ratio falls to a specified level), which are likely to be outside of the issuer's control. Such trigger events are complex and difficult to predict and may result in a significant or total reduction in the value of such instruments. In the event of the activation of a trigger, there may be potential price contagion and volatility to the entire asset class. Debt instruments with loss-absorption features may also be exposed to liquidity, valuation and sector concentration risk. The Underlying Fund may invest in contingent convertible debt securities, commonly known as CoCos, which are highly complex and are of high risk. Upon the occurrence of the trigger event, CoCos may be converted into shares of the issuer (potentially at a discounted price), or may be subject to the permanent write-down to zero. Coupon payments on CoCos are discretionary and may be cancelled by the issuer at any point, for any reason, and for any length of time. The Underlying Fund may also invest in senior non-preferred debts. While these instruments are generally senior to subordinated debts, they may be subject to write-down upon the occurrence of a trigger event and will no longer fall under the creditor ranking hierarchy of the issuer. This may result in total loss of principal invested.

- xiii. China Bond Connect risk: Bond Connect is a mutual market access scheme allowing overseas investors to trade in bonds circulated on the CIBM through connection between the Mainland and Hong Kong financial infrastructure institutions without quota limitations. The Northbound Trading link commenced on 3 July 2017 with transactions being made possible through mutual access arrangements in respect of trading, custody and settlement. It involves China Foreign Exchange Trading System, China Central Depository & Clearing Co., Shanghai Clearing House, Hong Kong Exchanges & Clearing plus the Central Moneymarkets Unit (CMU). A delivery versus payment (DVP) settlement system for transactions through the Bond Connect scheme was implemented in August 2018 thereby reducing settlement risk. The ultimate foreign eligible investors are the beneficial owners of the relevant CIBM bonds and may exercise their rights against the bond issuer through CMU as the nominee holder. The nominee holder may exercise its creditor rights and bring actions against bond issuers in Chinese courts. CIBM securities traded via the Bond Connect can be subject to risks including but not limited to regulatory risks, liquidity risk, operational risk, PRC tax risk and reputational risk. The Bond Connect encompasses recently developed trading systems. There can be no assurance that those systems will function correctly or will not be subject to further changes or adaptation. The relevant rules and regulations may be subject to change which may have potential retrospective effect. If the relevant mainland Chinese authorities suspend account opening or trading on the CIBM, the Underlying Fund's ability to invest in the CIBM will be adversely affected. In such event, the Underlying Fund's ability to achieve its investment objective may be negatively affected. There is no specific written guidance by the Mainland China tax authorities on the treatment of income tax and other tax categories payable in respect of trading in the CIBM by eligible foreign institutional investors via the Bond Connect. Securities traded through the Bond Connect may be subject to a range of reputational risks such as risks borne by companies being subject to cyber abuses, sanctions concerns and negative accusations over labor and human rights, environmental degradation, ties to high-risk countries and entities overseas.

- xiv. Withholding tax risk: The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

You may contact the Investment Manager for its latest information. Please refer to the section "Offices of Participants" of the Principal Brochure for the contact information.

Fees

A trustee fee of 0.2% per annum of the total net asset value of the Fund shall be payable from the Fund to the Trustee. Such fee shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears.

The investment manager of the Underlying Fund may receive a fee of 1.05% per annum, accrued at each dealing day and payable monthly in arrears, of the net asset value of the Underlying Fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the Underlying Fund (e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc.) are charged to the Underlying Fund.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA Capital Stable Fund

Investment manager at the fund level:

PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (the “Investment Manager”)

The Fund

AIA Capital Stable Fund (the “Fund”) was established in 1994. The Fund is denominated in United States dollars.

The primary objective of the Fund is to minimize its short-term capital risk in United States dollar terms. The secondary objective is to enhance returns over the long term through limited exposure to global equities. The Investment Manager will achieve the objective through a professionally managed portfolio, invested in one or more collective investment schemes authorized by the Securities and Futures Commission. The Fund does not guarantee the repayment of capital. The Fund invests in various classes or sub-funds (as the case may be) established under (i) the PineBridge Fund Series and/or (ii) the JPMorgan Savings & Retirement (“SAR”) range of funds. Details of the investment policies of the relevant sub-funds under the PineBridge Fund Series and the JPMorgan SAR range of funds are set out in their respective offering documents which are available upon request to the Trustee. Investments are structurally limited in line with the following asset-class exposures:

Asset Class	Benchmark
Equities	30%
Bonds	70%

Note: The above asset allocation is for reference only and is subject to changes at the Investment Manager’s discretion.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund’s net asset value together with the Fund’s unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. With effect from 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. “Business Day” means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a “Business Day” unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Exchange risk - The Fund may invest in assets quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund. The performance of the Fund may therefore be affected by movements in the exchange rate between the currencies in which the assets are held and the base currency of the Fund;
- iii. Counterparty/credit risk – The underlying collective investment schemes invest in deposits and debt securities and may be subject to default and settlement risks; and
- iv. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

You may contact the Investment Manager for its latest information. Please refer to the section “Offices of Participants” of the Principal Brochure for the contact information.

Fees

A trustee fee of up to 0.3% per annum, and an investment management fee equal to 0.95% per annum, of the total net asset value of the Fund shall be payable from the Fund to the Trustee and the Investment Manager respectively. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the management fee in respect of the underlying fund(s) will not exceed 1.25% per annum of the Fund's net asset value.

The Trustee of each underlying fund may receive a fee not exceeding 0.3% per annum of the net asset value of the underlying fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the underlying fund(s) e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc. are charged to the underlying fund(s).

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA Allianz Capital Stable Fund

Investment manager at the fund level and the underlying fund level:

Allianz Global Investors Asia Pacific Limited (the “Investment Manager”)

The Fund

AIA Allianz Capital Stable Fund (the “Fund”), established in 2007, invests solely in the Allianz Choice Capital Stable Fund (the “Underlying Fund”), except for a small portion (which is expected to be less than 10% of the net asset value of the Fund) that may be held in cash or cash based investments for operational purposes. The Fund is denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide investors with capital preservation combined with steady capital appreciation over the long term by investing in a diversified portfolio of global equities and fixed-interest securities through the Underlying Fund. The Fund does not guarantee repayment of capital.

The Underlying Fund is expected to invest 30% of its assets in equities and 70% in fixed-interest securities. The fixed income portion will consist of a range of instruments issued in countries around the world. The equity portion of the Underlying Fund will be invested primarily in Hong Kong, Japan, North American and European markets with a smaller proportion being invested, at the discretion of the Investment Manager, in other Asian countries and emerging markets. Details of the investments of the Underlying Fund are set out in the offering documents of the Underlying Fund which are available upon request to the Trustee.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund’s net asset value together with the Fund’s unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. With effect from 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. “Business Day” means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a “Business Day” unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Exchange risk - The Fund may invest in assets quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund. The performance of the Fund may therefore be affected by movements in the exchange rate between the currencies in which the assets are held and the base currency of the Fund;
- iii. Counterparty/credit risk – The Fund may invest in deposits and debt securities and may be subject to default and settlement risks;
- iv. Liquidity risk - The Fund may invest in financial instruments which may include investments in unlisted securities, which are not traded in an organised public market and which generally may be illiquid. As a result, the Fund may not be able to liquidate in a timely manner some of its investments in these instruments at an amount close to their fair value in order to meet its liquidity requirements; and
- v. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

- ii. Market risk - Various countries in which the Fund will invest are considered as emerging

- markets. As emerging markets tend to be more volatile than developed markets, any holdings in emerging markets are exposed to higher levels of markets risks;
- iii. Exchange risk - The Fund may invest in assets quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund. The performance of the Fund may therefore be affected by movements in the exchange rate between the currencies in which the assets are held and the base currency of the Fund;
 - iv. Counterparty/credit risk – The Fund may invest in deposits and debt securities and may be subject to default and settlement risks; and
 - v. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

You may contact the Investment Manager for its latest information. Please refer to the section “Offices of Participants” of the Principal Brochure for the contact information.

Fees

A trustee fee of up to 0.3% per annum, and an investment management fee equal to 0.95% per annum, of the total net asset value of the Fund shall be payable from the Fund to the Trustee and Investment Manager respectively. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the Underlying Fund’s management fee will not exceed 1.25% per annum of the Fund’s net asset value.

The trustee of the Underlying Fund may receive a fee not exceeding 0.25% per annum of the net asset value of the Underlying Fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the Underlying Fund (e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc.) are charged to the Underlying Fund.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA Manager's Choice Fund

Investment manager at the fund level:

PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (the "Investment Manager")

The Fund

AIA Manager's Choice Fund (the "Fund") was established in 2008 and is denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The AIA Manager's Choice Fund seeks to achieve long term capital appreciation through a professionally managed portfolio, invested in two or more pooled investment funds and/or approved index-tracking collective investment schemes ("ITCISs"). The AIA Manager's Choice Fund attempts to perform dynamic asset allocation in order to maximize long term capital appreciation. The AIA Manager's Choice Fund would be suitable to investors who are willing to accept an above average level of risk in order to achieve long term capital appreciation.

The Investment Manager will achieve the objective through a professionally managed portfolio, invested in two or more pooled investment funds and/or approved ITCISs. Depending on the market condition, the AIA Manager's Choice Fund may allocate from 10% to 90% of its assets in equities, with the balance invested in bonds, money market instruments and cash. Investments may be made in the above mentioned asset classes and may be in various markets globally where permitted by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes (General) Regulation. The allocations will change based on the Investment Manager's view on the economic and market outlook, with higher allocation to equity when equity market outlook is positive, balanced allocation when equity market outlook is neutral and higher allocation to bonds, money market instruments and cash when equity market outlook is negative. The asset allocation will be continually monitored and reviewed and changes will be made as considered appropriate to better achieve the Fund's objective. The Fund invests in various classes or sub-funds (as the case may be) established under (i) the PineBridge Fund Series, and/or (ii) the JPMorgan Savings & Retirement ("SAR") range of funds, and/or (iii) approved ITCISs. Details of the investment policies of the relevant sub-funds under the PineBridge Fund Series, the JPMorgan SAR range of funds and the approved ITCISs are set out in their respective offering documents which are available upon request to the Trustee. Certain relevant sub-funds may invest less than 30% of their total net assets in debt instruments with loss absorption features.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund's net asset value together with the Fund's unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. With effect from 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. "Business Day" means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a "Business Day" unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Emerging markets risk - Various countries in which the underlying pooled investment funds and/or the underlying approved ITCISs may invest are considered emerging markets. As emerging markets tend to be more volatile than developed markets, any holdings in emerging markets are exposed to higher levels of market risks;
- iii. Exchange rate risk - The Fund may invest in holdings denominated in other currencies and therefore be exposed to currency movements;
- iv. Counterparty risk – The underlying pooled investment funds and/or the underlying approved ITCISs may invest in deposits and debt securities and hence may be subject to defaults risks;
- v. Concentration risk – The investments of the underlying approved ITCISs may be concentrated in the securities of a single issuer or several issuers or in a particular industry or several industries, which may result in the Fund indirectly subject to concentration risk. Such indirect concentration may have the effect of increasing the volatility of the Fund's returns. The Fund does not control the investments of the underlying approved ITCISs and any indirect concentration is a result of the underlying approved ITCISs pursuing their own investment objectives;

- vi. Tracking error risk – The underlying approved ITCISs seek to track as closely as possible their respectively stated equity market indices. However, due to inherent tracking errors brought about by various factors, including, without limitation, the fees and charges payable by the underlying approved ITCISs, the performance of the underlying approved ITCISs may not track exactly the performance of the respective equity market indices;
- vii. Passive investment risk – The composition of the respective equity market indices which are tracked by the underlying approved ITCISs may change and constituent securities may be delisted. There is no guarantee or assurance that the performance of the underlying approved ITCISs will exactly replicate at any time the performance of the respective equity market indices.
Due to the inherent investment nature of index-tracking funds, the underlying approved ITCISs lack the discretion to adapt to market changes. As such, any falls in the respective equity market indices may result in corresponding falls in the value of the underlying approved ITCISs and the Fund; and
- viii. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.
- ix. Risk of investing in instruments with loss-absorption features - Certain underlying funds of the Fund may invest in instruments with loss-absorption features where such instruments are typically subject to being written off or converted to ordinary shares on the occurrence of a trigger event which are likely to be outside of the issuer’s control. A trigger event may include, for example, where the issuer’s capital ratio falls below a specified level or when the issuer is near or at the point of non-viability. Debt instruments with loss-absorption features are subject to greater risks as a result of being partially or fully written off when compared to traditional debt instruments. Trigger events are complex and difficult to predict and can result in a significant or total reduction in the value of such instruments giving rise to losses of the Fund.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

Fees

A trustee fee of up to 0.3% per annum, and an investment management fee equal to 0.95% per annum, of the total net asset value of the Fund shall be payable from the Fund to the Trustee and Investment Manager respectively. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the management fee in respect of the underlying fund(s) will not exceed 1.25% per annum of the Fund’s net asset value.

The trustee of each underlying fund may receive a fee not exceeding 0.3% per annum of the net asset value of the underlying fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the underlying fund(s) e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc. are charged to the underlying fund(s).

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

Remarks: The Investment Manager of the AIA Manager's Choice Fund has full discretion to allocate the fund of AIA Manager's Choice Fund in the above mentioned asset classes. The allocation in the above mentioned asset classes may change significantly based on the Investment Manager's view on the economic and market outlook.

AIA American Equity Fund

Investment manager at the fund level and the underlying fund level:

J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc. (the "Investment Manager")

The Fund

AIA American Equity Fund (the "Fund"), established in 1999, invests solely in the JPMorgan Funds – America Equity Fund (the "Underlying Fund"). The Fund is denominated in United States dollars. The investment objective is to achieve long-term capital growth by investing primarily in North American securities. Details of the investments of the Underlying Fund are set out in the offering documents of the Underlying Fund which are available upon request to the Trustee.

The Underlying Fund is run with a value bias and takes exposure to both large and mid-cap companies which may include non-index stocks and also seeks to outperform the S&P 500 Index by focusing on stock selection as the key source of excess return.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund's net asset value together with the Fund's unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. AIA Hong Kong Equity Fund

Investment manager at the fund level and the underlying fund level:

Schroder Investment Management (Hong Kong) Limited (the “Investment Manager”)

The Fund

AIA Hong Kong Equity Fund (the “Fund”) was established in 2009 and is denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The objective of the Fund is to provide capital growth primarily through investment in equity securities of Hong Kong SAR companies through an underlying fund. The Fund, through the Underlying Fund (as defined below), may invest in equity securities which are considered to be of high inherent risk.

Except for a small portion (which is expected to be less than 10% of the net asset value of the Fund) to be held in cash or cash based investments for operational purposes, the Fund invests solely in the Schroder International Selection Fund - Hong Kong Equity (the “Underlying Fund”) managed by the Investment Manager. The investment policy of the Underlying Fund is that the Underlying Fund will invest primarily, i.e. at least two thirds of its total assets (excluding liquidities), in equity and equity related securities (namely, options on equities and equity warrants) and the remaining third of its total assets may be invested in convertible bonds, bonds with equity options, equity linked notes and other similar securities and instruments. Also, the above investments of the Underlying Fund will be primarily related to the Hong Kong market. Details of the investments of the Underlying Fund are set out in the offering documents of the Underlying Fund which are available upon request to the Trustee.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund’s net asset value together with the Fund’s unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. With effect from 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. “Business Day” means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a “Business Day” unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Exchange rate risk - The Underlying Fund may invest in holdings denominated in other currencies and therefore be exposed to currency movement;
- iii. Counterparty/credit risk – The Underlying Fund may invest in deposits and debt securities and hence may be subject to default and settlement risks; and
- iv. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

You may contact the Investment Manager for its latest information. Please refer to the section “Offices of Participants” of the Principal Brochure for the contact information.

Rebate

The Investment Manager of the Fund may enter into soft commission arrangements only where there is a direct and identifiable benefit to the clients of the Investment Manager of the Fund, including the Fund, and where the Investment Manager of the Fund is satisfied that the transactions generating the soft commissions are made in good faith, in strict compliance with applicable regulatory requirements and in the best interests of the Fund. Any such arrangements must be made by the Investment Manager of the Fund on terms commensurate with best market practice.

Borrowing

The Fund may not borrow for the account of the Fund, unless the borrowed amounts do not in aggregate exceed 10% of the net asset value of the Fund, and then only as a temporary measure, for the purpose of meeting redemption requests or defraying operating expenses.

Fees

A trustee fee of up to 0.3% per annum, and an investment management fee equal to 0.95% per annum, of the total net asset value of the Fund shall be payable from the Fund to the Trustee and the Investment Manager respectively. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the Underlying Fund's management fee will not exceed 1.25% per annum of the Fund's net asset value.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the Underlying Fund e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc. are charged to the Underlying Fund.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA Greater China Equity Fund

Investment manager at the fund level: PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (the "Investment Manager")

Investment manager at the underlying fund level: PineBridge Investments Hong Kong Limited

The Fund

AIA Greater China Equity Fund (the "Fund"), was established in 2009 and is denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The Fund seeks to provide long term capital appreciation by investing in the equity securities of companies with exposure to the economies of countries within the Greater China Region i.e. China, Hong Kong and Taiwan. Implementation of the investment policy is considered to be of high inherent risk.

Except for a small portion (which is expected to be less than 10% of the net asset value of the Fund) to be held in cash or cash based investments for operational purposes, the Fund invests solely in the PineBridge Fund Series – PineBridge Greater China Equity Fund ("the Underlying Fund") whose asset allocation policy is to have at least 70% of assets invested in equity securities, securities convertible into equity securities and other investments giving exposure to equity securities, in each case where the equity securities are listed or to be listed on the stock exchanges of Hong Kong and Taiwan. The investment manager of the Underlying Fund may, in its discretion, reduce this percentage should, in its opinion, market or other conditions warrant such reduction. The remaining assets of the Underlying Fund will be held in cash or near-cash securities. Details of the investments of the Underlying Fund are set out in the offering documents of the Underlying Fund which are available upon request to the Trustee.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund's net asset value together with the Fund's unit price. Prior to 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 2nd Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. With effect from 2 March 2018, valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. "Business Day" means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a "Business Day" unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Emerging Markets risk - Various regions in which the Underlying Fund will invest are considered emerging markets. As emerging markets tend to be more volatile than developed markets, any holdings in emerging markets are exposed to higher levels of markets risks;
- iii. Exchange rate risk - The Underlying Fund may invest in holdings denominated in other currencies and therefore be exposed to currency movements;
- iv. Counterparty risk – The Underlying Fund may invest in deposits and debt securities and hence may be subject to defaults risks; and
- v. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

Fees

A trustee fee of up to 0.3% per annum, and an investment management fee equal to 0.95% per annum, of the total net asset value of the Fund shall be payable from the Fund to the Trustee and the Investment Manager respectively. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the Underlying Fund’s management fee will not exceed 1.25% per annum of the Fund’s net asset value.

The trustee of the Underlying Fund may receive a fee not exceeding 0.3% per annum of the net asset value of the Underlying Fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the Underlying Fund e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc. are charged to the Underlying Fund.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

Fees

The Trustee can receive a fee not exceeding 0.3% per annum of the total net asset value of the Fund. Currently it is waived. Such fee shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears.

The investment manager of the Underlying Fund may receive a fee not exceeding 1.5% per annum, accrued at each dealing day and payable monthly in arrears, of the net asset value of the Underlying Fund.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the Underlying Fund (e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc.) are charged to the Underlying Fund.

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges.

Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). AIA Hong Kong and China Fund

Investment manager at the fund level: PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (the “Investment Manager”)

The Fund

AIA Hong Kong and China Fund (the “Fund”) was established in 2019 and is denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The Fund is a portfolio management fund investing entirely in index-tracking collective investment schemes (“ITCISs”). The investment objective of the Fund is to seek a long term capital appreciation by investing entirely in a combination of equity market index-tracking funds that track Hong Kong equity market indices that measure the performance of companies listed in Hong Kong (including China incorporated enterprises listed in Hong Kong in the form of H Shares). Please note that the Fund is not an index-tracking fund.

The Fund will normally invest (1) up to 90% of its net asset value in the Tracker Fund of Hong Kong (“TraHK”) and (2) up to 40% of its net asset value in the Hang Seng China Enterprises Index ETF (“HSCEI ETF”). The key investment information of these ITCISs is set out below. The Fund may also invest in other ITCISs as determined by the Investment Manager from time to time.

The Fund may hold ancillary cash or cash based investments for operational and/or hedging purposes. The Fund will not engage in security lending or use derivatives for investment purposes, however it is possible that the ITCISs in which the Fund invests may do so.

(i) TraHK is managed by State Street Global Advisors Asia Limited. It is a collective investment scheme structured as a unit trust established under the laws of Hong Kong. TraHK’s investment objective is to provide investment results that closely correspond to the performance of the Hang Seng Index (“Index”). The manager of TraHK seeks to achieve TraHK’s investment objective by adopting a replication strategy, i.e. investing all, or substantially all, of TraHK’s assets in shares in the constituent companies of the Index in substantially the same weightings as they appear in the Index. TraHK may use derivatives for hedging or investment purposes. TraHK is not allowed to engage in securities lending.

(ii) HSCEI ETF is managed by Hang Seng Investment Management Limited. It is a sub-fund of the Hang Seng Investment Index Funds Series, a unit trust established as an umbrella fund under the laws of Hong Kong. HSCEI ETF is an index-tracking fund which aims to match, before expenses, as closely as practicable the performance of the Hang Seng China Enterprises Index (“Index”). The manager of HSCEI ETF primarily adopts a replication strategy, and HSCEI ETF invests in substantially all the constituent stocks of the Index in substantially the same weightings (i.e. proportions) as these stocks have in the Index; however the manager may decide to utilise a representative sampling strategy or another investment strategy from time to time to achieve HSCEI ETF's investment objective. HKCEI ETF may use derivatives for investment purpose. HKCEI ETF does not intend to engage in securities lending.

Further details of the statement of investment policies and objectives and the associated risks of TraHK and HSCEI ETF are set out in their respective offering documents which are available upon request to the Trustee.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund's net asset value together with the Fund's unit price. Valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. "Business Day" means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a "Business Day" unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Investment shall be valued according to the prevailing generally accepted accounting principles.

Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Market risk - The investments into the underlying ITCISs are subject to the risks inherent in all securities; the value of holdings may rise as well as fall. Various regions in which the Fund may invest are considered as emerging markets. As emerging markets tend to be more volatile than developed markets, any holdings in emerging markets are exposed to higher levels of market risks;
- iii. Interest rate risk – The underlying ITCISs may invest in equities whose values will be subject to interest rate movements;
- iv. Exchange rate risk – The Fund and/or the underlying ITCISs may invest in assets quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund. The performance of the Fund may therefore be affected by movements in the exchange rate between the currencies in which the assets are held and the base currency of the Fund;
- v. Counterparty/Credit risk – The Fund invests in ITCISs and may be exposed to

- counterparty default and settlement risks;
- vi. Hedging – The Investment Manager is permitted, but not obliged, to use hedging techniques to attempt to offset market and currency risks. There is no guarantee that hedging techniques will achieve their desired result;
 - vii. Concentration risk – The investments of the underlying ITCISs may be concentrated in the securities of a single issuer or several issuers or in a particular industry or several industries or in a single country or region, which may result in the Fund being indirectly subject to concentration risk. Such indirect concentration may have the effect of increasing the volatility of the Fund's returns. The Fund does not control the investments of the underlying ITCISs and any indirect concentration is a result of the underlying ITCISs pursuing their own investment objectives;
 - viii. Tracking error risk – The underlying ITCISs seek to track as closely as possible their respectively stated equity market indices. However, due to inherent tracking errors brought about by various factors, including, without limitation, the fees and charges payable by the underlying ITCISs, the performance of the underlying ITCISs may not track exactly the performance of the respective equity market indices. The Investment Manager of the Fund will monitor the extent of the tracking errors of the underlying ITCISs on an ongoing basis and, in the situation where the performance of any of the underlying ITCIS deviates significantly from the performance of the relevant equity market index, the Investment Manager of the Fund may take any appropriate actions;
 - ix. Passive investment risk – The composition of the respective equity market indices which are tracked by the underlying ITCISs may change and constituent securities may be delisted. There is no guarantee or assurance that the performance of the underlying ITCISs will exactly replicate at any time the performance of the respective equity market indices.

Due to the inherent investment nature of index-tracking funds, the underlying ITCISs lack the discretion to adapt to market changes. As such, any falls in the respective equity market indices may result in corresponding falls in the value of the underlying ITCISs and the Fund.

Any license granted to the service providers of the underlying ITCISs for the use of, and reference to, the respective equity market indices, may be terminated and the underlying ITCISs may be terminated as a result. Under such situation, the Fund may have to reallocate its assets to other underlying ITCISs;
 - x. Risk associated with investment in financial derivative instruments – The underlying ITCISs may use financial derivative instruments which may be subject to additional risks such as counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element/component of a financial derivative instrument can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the

- financial derivative instrument. Exposure to financial derivative instruments may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the underlying ITCISs and the Fund; and
- xi. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

Fees

The Trustee receives a fee of up to 0.79% per annum (inclusive of the Investment Manager's fee) of the total net asset value of the Fund. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the management fee in respect of the underlying fund(s) will not exceed 0.99% per annum of the Fund's net asset value.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the underlying fund(s) e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc. are charged to the underlying fund(s).

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges. Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).

AIA World Fund

Investment manager at the fund level: PineBridge Investments Asia Limited (the “Investment Manager”)

The Fund

AIA World Fund (the “Fund”) was established in 2019 and is denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The Fund is a portfolio management fund investing entirely in index-tracking collective investment schemes (“ITCISs”). The investment objective of the Fund is to seek a long term capital appreciation by investing in a combination of global equity market index-tracking funds. Please note that the Fund is not an index-tracking fund.

The Fund will invest mainly in ITCISs that track equity market indices that cover large cap companies in their respective markets around the world. A greater proportion of the assets will primarily be invested in equity market ITCISs that track North American, European, Far Eastern and Australasian markets and a smaller proportion will be invested in ITCISs that track Latin American markets.

The Fund will normally invest at least 75% of its net asset value in the iShares World Equity Index Fund. The key investment information of this ITCIS is set out below. The Fund will also invest in other ITCISs as determined by the Investment Manager from time to time.

The Fund may hold ancillary cash or cash based investments for operational and/or hedging purposes. The Fund will not engage in security lending or use derivatives for investment purposes, however it is possible that the ITCISs in which the Fund invests may do so .

The iShares World Equity Index Fund is managed by BlackRock Asset Management North Asia Limited. It is a sub-fund of the BlackRock Premier Funds, which is an umbrella unit trust established under the laws of Hong Kong. The iShares World Equity Index Fund seeks to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely track the performance of the FTSE MPF All-World Index (HKD unhedged total return) (“Index”). The manager of the iShares World Equity Index Fund intends to invest primarily in securities included in the Index using a representative sampling strategy by investing in a portfolio featuring high correlation with the Index. The number of securities held by the iShares World Equity Index Fund will vary according to the size of the iShares World Equity Index Fund but is not expected to be less than 50% of the number of the index constituents at any point in time. The iShares World Equity Index Fund may hold up to 10% of its net asset value in securities that are not included in, but match the characteristics of, the Index, in circumstances considered appropriate by the manager. The iShares World Equity Index Fund may invest in derivative for the purposes of hedging and non-hedging including investment, and/or return optimization. The iShares World Equity Index Fund does not intend to engage in any securities financing transactions.

Further details of the statement of investment policies and objectives and the associated risks of the iShares World Equity Index Fund are set out in their respective offering documents which are available upon request to the Trustee.

Valuation of the Fund will normally be made on each Business Day to determine the Fund's net asset value together with the Fund's unit price. Valuation will normally be made on the 1st Business Day following the completion of the Business Day on which the relevant subscription, redemption, dealing or such transaction occurs. "Business Day" means any day (other than a Saturday) on which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business provided that where, as a result of typhoon signal number 8 or above or a black rainstorm warning or other similar event, the period during which banks in Hong Kong are open for normal banking business on any day is reduced, any such day shall not be a "Business Day" unless the Trustee otherwise determines. Risks

Other than the usual market risk and interest rate risk, the Fund is also exposed to the following risks:

- i. Political, economic and social risks - All financial markets and therefore the value of the Fund may at times be adversely affected by changes in political, economic and social conditions and policies;
- ii. Market risk – The investments into the underlying ITCISs are subject to the risks inherent in all securities; the value of holdings may rise as well as fall. Various countries in which the Fund may invest are considered as emerging markets. As emerging markets tend to be more volatile than developed markets, any holdings in emerging markets are exposed to higher levels of market risks;
- iii. Interest rate risk – The underlying ITCISs may invest in equities whose values will be subject to interest rate movements;
- iv. Exchange rate risk – The Fund and/or the underlying ITCISs may invest in assets quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund. The performance of the Fund may therefore be affected by movements in the exchange rate between the currencies in which the assets are held and the base currency of the Fund;
- v. Counterparty/Credit risk – The Fund invests in ITCISs and may be exposed to counterparty default and settlement risks;
- vi. Hedging – The Investment Manager is permitted, but not obliged, to use hedging techniques to attempt to offset market and currency risks. There is no guarantee that

- hedging techniques will achieve their desired result;
- vii. Concentration risk – The investments of the underlying ITCISs may be concentrated in the securities of a single issuer or several issuers or in a particular industry or several industries or in a single country or region, which may result in the Fund being indirectly subject to concentration risk. Such indirect concentration may have the effect of increasing the volatility of the Fund's returns. Due to the inherent investment nature of index-tracking funds, the underlying ITCISs lack the discretion to adapt to market changes. As such, any falls in the respective equity market indices may result in corresponding falls in the value of the underlying ITCISs and the Fund.

Any license granted to the service providers of the underlying ITCISs for the use of, and reference to, the respective equity market indices, may be terminated and the underlying ITCISs may be terminated as a result. Under such situation, the Fund may have to reallocate its assets to other underlying ITCISs;
 - x. Risk associated with investment in financial derivative instruments – The underlying ITCISs may use financial derivative instruments which may be subject to additional risks such as counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element/component of a financial derivative instrument can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the financial derivative instrument. Exposure to financial derivative instruments may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the underlying ITCISs and the Fund; and
 - xi. Withholding tax risk - The Fund may be subject to withholding tax including under FATCA.

In the worst case scenario, a member who invests into this Fund may suffer a significant loss to his/her investments.

A member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should consider his/her own risk tolerance level and financial circumstances before making any fund choices. When, in his/her selection of fund choices, the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) is in doubt as to whether a certain fund choice is suitable for him/her (including whether it is consistent with his/her investment objectives), the member or external retirement scheme investor (as the case may be) should seek financial and/or professional advice and choose the fund choice(s) most suitable for him/her taking into account his/her circumstances.

The Investment Manager

You may contact the Investment Manager for its latest information. Please refer to the section "Offices of Participants" of the Principal Brochure for the contact information.

Fees

The Trustee receives a fee of up to 0.74% per annum (inclusive of the Investment Manager's fee) of the total net asset value of the Fund. Such fee(s) shall accrue daily based on the calculation basis described above and be payable monthly in arrears. The trustee fee and the investment management fee of the Fund together with the management fee in respect of the underlying fund(s) will not exceed 0.99% per annum of the Fund's net asset value.

The Fund will bear all fees and expenses incurred in connection with or in relation to the Scheme, including custody, sub-custody expenses and stamp duties, any application, authorization, annual or other fees payable to any regulatory authorities, and any levy imposed by the relevant Hong Kong legislation, in particular, taxes, governmental charges, brokerages, commissions, exchange costs and commissions, bank charges, transfer fees and expenses, registration fees and expenses, proxy fees and expenses, collection fees and expenses, insurance and security costs (if any), the fees and expenses of the auditors, legal charges and other advisory charges, the expenses of giving notices to or otherwise communicating with employers or external retirement scheme investors*, the costs and expenses incurred in effecting and maintaining any insurance, other expenses required by any other applicable laws or regulations to be taken out in respect of the Scheme, and other costs as described in all the constitutive documents.

Any expenses incurred in the management and custodianship of the underlying fund(s) e.g. stamp duty, audit fees etc. are charged to the underlying fund(s).

For details of fees and charges, please refer to the Summary of Fees and Charges. Any changes to the above fees will be announced by the Trustee at least three months in advance.

Remark: This Fund is only available to (i) the participating employers and employees, and (ii) any external retirement scheme investor*, of the Scheme. Therefore this sheet should be issued and read in conjunction with the Principal Brochure and the Summary of Fees and Charges of the Scheme.

* An external retirement scheme investor means either the trustee(s) of an external retirement scheme (i.e. a retirement scheme other than the Scheme) or any investor(s) of assets of any external retirement scheme(s) or the Scheme (to the extent that such assets are to be invested in accordance with the rules to the trust deed constituting the Scheme). "Investor" for the purpose of "external retirement scheme" must either be a company authorised under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) to carry on insurance business, or a corporation licensed to carry on, or an authorised financial institution registered for carrying on, a business in asset management under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571).
